INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

December 6, 2024

To the Board of Directors Unknown Nations d/b/a World Mission Grand Rapids, Michigan

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Unknown Nations (d/b/a World Mission) (a non-profit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Unknown Nations as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Unknown Nations and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Unknown Nations' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Unknown Nations' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate that raise substantial doubt about Unknown Nations' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters, that we identified during the audit.

Note A - Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Activities

The accompanying financial statements present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of Unknown Nations (d/b/a World Mission) (the "Organization"). The Organization is incorporated in the State of Michigan and organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes. The work of the Organization to reach the previously unreachable and thereby complete Jesus' calling to take the Gospel to the "ends of the earth." The Organization believes the ends of the earth are not the most distant places geographically. They are the most distant places spiritually. They are the most zero-access, barrier-ridden, spiritually antagonistic, spoken-word reliant people groups on the planet. The Organization exists to give birth to the Church in impossible places. The Organization achieves this through three strategic initiatives of creating access to God's Word, targeted humanitarian projects, and discipleship training. The Mission, in short: To reach the previously unreachable at the ends of the earth—completing the last four words of Jesus' calling.

Name Change

On May 12, 2023, the World Mission Board of Directors approved a change in name from World Mission to Unknown Nations (d/b/a World Mission). The Organization has had increasing requests from the field for more Treasures and resources to impact unreached areas and therefore the only solution was to grow! What has been a regional support base needed to become a national support base. To accomplish this vision, the Organization had to think about the name. As they began to scale to reach a national Christian community and serve the vision God had instilled, the name was becoming a hindrance. While the Organization is so very proud of its past and what God has done through World Mission, the Organization recognized that its name was causing confusion and didn't reflect the singular laser-focus of its ministry.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, recording revenue when earned rather than when received, and recording expenses when incurred rather than when paid.

Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of demand deposits in banks, institutional money market funds and cash on hand. For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Organization maintains cash balances in checking and savings accounts. The checking and savings accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 per financial institution. From time to time during the year, the Organization may have cash in a bank checking or savings account in excess of the federally insured limit.

Investments

Investments held by the Organization consist of cash, money market funds, and certificates of deposit. Such investments are carried at fair value, based on quoted market prices. Investments received as donations are initially recorded at fair value on the date of receipt. Thereafter, the carrying value of such investments is adjusted to fair value, which is determined by published market quotations. Realized gains and losses on the sale of investments are determined based on first-in, first-out method. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the non-operating items on the statement of activities.

Contributions Receivable

The Organization has received contributions from various donors to contribute monies in the future for various purposes. The allowance for uncollectible contributions at June 30, 2024 and 2023 was $9,000. Contributions receivable due in more than one year are reflected at the present value of estimated future cash flows using a discount rate of 8% and 7% at June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

The Organization's had the following unconditional contributions receivable as of June 30, 2024 and 2023:

|  | 2024                              | 2023                             |

Inventory

Inventory consisting of used clothing, used household furniture and audio Bibles is stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Costs for used furniture are incurred in the procurement and sorting of goods for resale.

For the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, or in the case of donated property, at estimated fair value at the date of donation. The Organization follows a capitalization policy of $2,000 in determining assets to be depreciated. Management annually reviews these assets to determine whether carrying values have been impaired. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the useful lives of the related assets as follows:

| Land improvements                     | 10 - 15 years |
|---------------------------------------|---------------|
| Buildings                             | 20 - 40 years |
| Leasehold improvements                | 5 - 15 years  |
| Equipment, furniture, and furnishings | 3 - 10 years  |
| Vehicles                              | 5 years       |

Net Assets

The Organization reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following net asset classifications:

Net assets without donor restrictions – net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Organization. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Organization's management and the board of directors.

Net assets with donor restrictions – net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by the actions of the Organization or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions in the statement of activities.

Revenue Recognition

The Organization recognizes contributions when cash, securities, or other assets; an unconditional promise to give; or a notification of beneficial interest is received. Conditional promises to give – that is, those with a measurable performance obligation or other barrier and a right of return – are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met.

Revenue Recognition (Continued)

Contributions received are recorded as net assets without donor restrictions or net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. All donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Contributions with donor-imposed stipulations that are met in the same year as received or earned are reported as unrestricted revenue.

Revenue for furniture purchases is recognized when the customer receives and pays for the merchandise whereas royalty income is recorded when received.

The Organization has contracts with customers for Treasures with one performance obligation. This performance obligation is satisfied at shipment of the product. For product purchased, but subsequently delivered to the customer, the Organization recognizes a liability until delivery is complete; at that time, the liability is reversed, and revenue is recognized. Payment terms require payment upon shipment of the product.

During the year ended June 30, 2023, the Organization applied for Employee Retention Credits under the CARES Act for qualifying payroll expenditures incurred in prior years. The amount of $33,582 has been booked as a receivable and unearned revenue in the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Contributions of Nonfinancial Assets

Volunteers have donated time to the Organization's operations during the year; however, these donated services are not reflected in the financial statements to the extent that the services do not require specialized skills.

Donated goods are recorded as revenue on the date of the receipt at estimated fair market value. Donated materials of $51,474 and $64,082 were included in support and revenue during 2024 and 2023, respectively. This revenue was offset by fixed assets shown in the statement of financial position or expenses shown on the statements of activities and functional expenses according to the nature of the donation. The Organization also receives in-kind donations of audio Bibles each year. These in-kind donations recorded in the statement of activities were $410,795 and $828,994 for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

As the in-kind donations are received, they are booked to inventory and then released through cost of goods sold as they are donated to our international partners or sold. See Note F for additional details.

Advertising and Promotion

The Organization expenses promotion and education costs as incurred. Promotion and education costs for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 were $25,464 and $8,576, respectively.

For the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023

Functional Expense Allocation

Directly identifiable expenses are charged to programs and supporting services. Expenses related to more than one function are charged to programs and supporting services on the basis of periodic time and expense studies and direct invoices. Management and general expenses include those expenses that are not directly identifiable with any other specific function but provide for the overall support and direction of the Organization.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Organization qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2).

The Organization evaluates tax positions taken on its federal Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Returns in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that tax positions taken be more-likely-than-not to be sustained. Management believes that the Organization has no significant unrecognized tax benefits under that criteria. Penalties and interest, if any, assessed by income taxing authorities are included in operating expenses. The Organization's federal Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Returns are generally subject to examination by taxing authorities for three years after they were filed.

Subsequent Events

Management evaluates events occurring subsequent to the date of the financial statements in determining the accounting for and disclosure of transactions and events that affect the financial statements. Subsequent events have been evaluated through December 6, 2024, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Leases

The Organization has entered into a variety of operating leases for an automobile and various operating equipment. The obligations associated with these leases have been recognized as a liability in the balance sheet of future lease payments, discounted by the incremental borrowing rate for the Organization's operating leases. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate certain leases if it is reasonably certain management will exercise an option to extend or terminate a lease. See Note J for additional lease information.

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the prior year financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the presentation in the current year financial statements.

Note B - Liquidity and Availability

The Organization regularly monitors liquidity required to meet its operating needs, while also striving to maximize the investment of its available funds. The Organization's sources of liquidity at its disposal include cash, accounts receivable, interest receivable, employee retention receivable, and contributions receivable.

For purposes of analyzing resources available to meet general expenditures over a 12-month period, the Organization considers all expenditures related to its ongoing programmatic activities, as well as the conduct of services undertaken to support those activities, to be general expenditures. In addition to financial assets available to meet general expenditures over the next 12 months, the Organization anticipates collecting sufficient revenue to cover general expenditures not covered by donor-restricted resources. Refer to the statement of cash flows which identifies the sources and uses of the Organization's cash used for operations for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023.

As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the following financial assets could readily be made available within one year of the balance sheet date to meet general expenditures:

Terms of the lease require annual payments of $1. The estimated annual lease market value of the building is $218,750. This amount is included in rental income and contributions expense for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 in the accompanying statements of activities. The month to month rental agreement has been terminated during the year ended June 30, 2024.

Effective July 1, 2024, the lease was renewed for five years and the estimated annual lease market value of the building was increased to $264,250.

Note E - Employee Retirement Plan

The Organization's retirement plan requires the Organization to contribute a match of 50% up to 2% of an eligible employee's salary. Total retirement plan expense was $10,378 and $5,056 for June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Note G - Fair Value Measurement

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The fair value hierarchy is categorized into three levels based on the inputs as follows:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Quoted prices in markets that are not considered active or financial instruments for which significant inputs include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, interest rates, credit risks, etc.

Level 3 – Significant unobservable inputs, which may include the Organization's own assumptions in determining fair value.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for investments measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at June 30, 2024.

Money market funds and certificates of deposits: Valued based on quoted net asset values of the shares held by the Organization on the last business day of the year.

Assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis comprise the following at June 30, 2024:

|                         | Level 1 |         | Level 2 |         | Fair ValueJune 30, 2024 |           |  |

Note I - Related Parties

During the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Organization entered into a working arrangement with a video production company owned by a board member. The amounts of $21,665 and $11,502 are included in the statements of functional expenses reported by the Organization for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Note J - Operating Leases

Operating lease assets consist of an auto lease, and leases for various office equipment with unrelated parties. These leases have varying lease periods from 36 to 63 months and require monthly payments ranging from $62 - $561. Lease payments are reported on statement of functional expenses as Office supplies and postage and as program expenses on the statement of activities for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023. Total lease expense for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 was $11,047 and $6,395, respectively.
